

Allied Medical General Liability / Professional Liability for Non-Emergency Medical Transport

Many policies provide loading and unloading coverage only when the client is getting in and out of the vehicle. As soon as they are away from the vehicle - NO COVERAGE! Our policy can solve this issue. Features of our Allied Medical General Liability / Professional liability include:

Professional Liability - A claim could occur for injury and also for financial loss suffered by a third party. Our policy provides a dual trigger to ensure that each provider is insured.

General Liability - Key to any business in their dealings with clients and members of the public. Our coverage protects your insured against legal expenses and compensation claims brought by third party individuals injuring themselves on your premises.

Cyber & Privacy Liability - Our coverage for Cyber and Privacy is developed with healthcare organizations in mind. It addresses risks associated with privacy breaches, HIPAA violations, system damage, business interruption and more.

Sexual Misconduct & Physical Abuse liability - The reporting of sexual misconduct and physical abuse allegations is growing rapidly. Our policy provides coverage in two sections. Section A is designed to cover the legal defense costs. Section B provides the legal liability, including liability for claimants' costs and expenses.

Non-Owned and Hired Automobile - Covers claims against the organization for accidents caused by an employee using their own or rented vehicle for business purposes. Our policy also extends to the unloading and loading of patients under this insuring clause.

Loss Mitigation costs - We provide coverage for existing litigation, meaning you are covered for financial losses which have exceed the limits of other policies in place.

Court Attendance costs - We cover costs incurred by attending court in relation to a claim or loss covered by this policy.

Reputation and Brand Protection - For costs and expenses (up to a specified sub-limit) for the services of a public relations consultant to mitigate damage to reputation and brand.
