

Pandemic Proof-ish P&C Classes

2020 has been a year of "ish" and a lot of adjusting to "ishing". Restaurants are back open-ish. Schools are back in session-ish. Professional sports are back playing-ish. But one thing that is NOT an "ish" is Russell Bond & Co., Inc. We remain committed to working with you through this pandemic and helping you find solutions. Adapting to our current environment is key to survival!

Although nothing is 100% pandemic proof, we have created a list of P&C classes that we feel may not be as impacted as others.

- AirBnB / VRBO operations
- Air-purification manufacturers
- Breweries
- Builders risks
- Cannabis risks
- Contractors / remodelers
- Daycares
- Food trucks
- Fully vacant or partially vacant commercial buildings and / or apartment houses
- Gun manufacturers & gun stores
- Gun ranges and instructors
- Liquor stores
- Moving companies and warehouse / storage operations
- On-line training / instructors

Please share with us what other P&C risks you think are pandemic proof-ish.
We would love to hear your thoughts!
